Ogden is leading the league in hitting. Sawyer, Butte's new shortstop, participating in eleven games, is hitting .429.

Owing to the large number of boots by one of the Ogden infielders, Gimlin's club is last in the fielding records. Helena's offensive strength continues to be apparent, but its defense is still weak. Lack of pitch-

School Girls—BACK to the BICYCLE

Enjoyment is measured by sensation—an abundance of sensation is yielded by the glorious sport of bicycling; the blood is drawn from the head, leaving it clear and cool; deep breathing exhilarates; rhythmic flexing of the muscles, without shock or strain, produces a consciousness of suppleness and power; coasting lets the blood tingle delightfully back through the relaxed muscles. Then the delicious lounging afterwards—the appetite and dreamless sleep.

The story of this superb mechanism cannot be told in a few lines. The detailed engravings and clear descriptive text of our catalog, printed in natural colors, will leave no shadow of doubt in your mind as to the superiority of Iver Johnson design and workmanship; the value of our scientifically right Truss Bridge Frame, of forged crown, dust proof, creosote steel bearings and machine finish (five coats of baked and hand rubbed enamel). Please let us send this catalog, or come in and see the wheel.

HELENA PLAYS GOOD BALL BUT IS DEFEATED

Helena, Mont., June 23.—Butte won the first game of the series 2 to 0. Sawyer is largely responsible for Helena's defeat. In two different innings, with men on bases, he made sensational stops and doubled the Vigilantes out.

Today's game was one of the prettiest pitching battles ever witnessed on the local grounds. Belford kept his hits well scattered and would probably have won his game had it not been for one bad inning.

In the third frame Marshall got to first on an error, and Zimmerman walked. Brady hit out a single and both scored.

McCreery also was in fine form and was in danger but twice.

COUCH, NEW PITCHER MAKES A GOOD IMPRESSION

The scores in yesterday's game at Glenwood came in bunches, the Canners getting 3, 4 and 3 and the Boise Irrigators getting a trio of threes. Two pitchers were used by each manager. Melter, Jensen's first choice, going down in the fourth, with eight hits against him, and Knight, the big Canner, being jerked in the seventh, after he had been touched for 11 safe ones. Wood replaced Melter and Couch replaced Knight.

There were two features in the game which made the local fans joyful and one that dashed their joy. The two first were the snappy playing of "Ducky" Jones, who pulled off two sensational plays, and the excellent showing of Couch, Gimlin's new twirler. Couch showed so much "smoke" in the one and one-third inning, that he was on the mound that he was only found for one hit. His work really saved the day for Ogden. The sad event was the spraining of Howard Murphy's ankle, which occurred in the sixth inning and which will probably put him out of the game for the remaining two weeks of the first half of the split season.

Murphy's mishap occurred just after he had beaten out a bunt. With Woolums at bat and two strikes on him, Murphy attempted to steal second on the next ball pitched. Catcher Buck Weaver, however, caught the ball—a strike—putting Woolums out and pegged to Bostick, catching Murphy, and completing a double play. Murphy made a desperate slide for the base and doubled up his ankle. He was in agony for a number of minutes and after a couple of physicians had eased his pain to some extent, he was carried from the field.

The players of both teams had their betting shoes on yesterday, Ogden getting 13 hits and Boise 12. With the exception of a home run by Pitcher Wood and two doubles by Weaver, the Canners hit the edge of the bat and doubled up his ankle. He was in agony for a number of minutes and after a couple of physicians had eased his pain to some extent, he was carried from the field.

Neither side scored in the first inning. For Boise, Bauer filed to Jones, Kelly went out, Jones to Woolums and Thomas went out. Knight to Woolums. In the second half Murphy sent a hit lined to Melter and the Boise pitcher saved his life and spoiled Murphy's chance for a hit by holding onto the ball. Woolums filed to Bauer and Jones went out. Wessler to Thomas.

In the second inning Bostick got to first on Risberg's boot and Weaver advanced him with an infield hit, which was too close in for Jones to field quickly enough to get the edge at first. Bostick went to third on the play and then Weaver stole second. Knight settled down and fanned Moorehead. As Wessler went to bat, he was cheered by the fans, but the best he could do was to send a fly to Risberg. Melter went out, Dowling to Woolums.

scoring on the play. Seabough filed to Bostick.

Undaunted by the Canners' big lead, the Idahoans went in to over come it in the sixth and almost did so. Weaver singled and Moorehead filed to Murphy. Wessler then scored Weaver with a two-bagger. Woods a right-handed batter, hit one over the right-field fence, very close to the foul line, for the circuit, pushing Wessler in ahead of him. Woolums, claiming that the ball was a foul, staged a little Hester "stuff" which was not at all approved by the fans.

The home-run hit evidently rattled Knight and he muffed Bauer's easy fly, allowing the runner to reach first. Kelly went out, Risberg to Woolums and Blauser went out, Dowling to Woolums.

In the second half Knight struck out. Murphy beat out a bunt and was doubled out at second on the play in which Woolums struck out. It was in this play that Murphy received the sprained ankle. He was replaced in right field by Ballinger.

In the first half of the seventh, Boise was blanked and in the second half Ogden got three more runs. Jones reached first on an error by Wessler and Cobb was hit by a pitched ball. Risberg hit for two bases, scoring Jones and sending Cobb to third. Dowling then sent a clean single over second base and Cobb and Risberg both registered. Ellis filed to Moorehead and Dowling went out on an attempted steal. Weaver to Wessler. Seabough singled and went to second on Bostick's error. Knight reaching first on the same play. Ballinger retired the side by going out at first.

The Irrigators came up with three more in the first half of the eighth. Moorehead was passed and Wessler got his second two-bagger. Woods struck out and Bauer scored. Moorehead and Wessler with a single. Bauer went out at second and Kelly reached first on a fielder's choice. Blauser singled into centerfield and continued on to third when Cobb straddled the ball. Kelly scored on the same fluke. At this juncture Knight was pulled by Gimlin and replaced by Couch. Thomas ended the inning by going out. Dowling to Woolums. That ended the run-getting for the day. Flying Fairy was next with old Donald MacDonald sixth, and Lahore, who broke down during the race, hopelessly last.

Only seven horses ran as J. W. Schorr's Luke McLuke, winner of the Belmont stakes, and J. W. Messervy's Charlestonian, which won both the Withers and Larchmont stakes at Belmont park recently, were scratched.

The value of the handicap to the winner this year was not quite $4000, while in 1908, when Celt won, the prize amounted to $19,750.

The time, 2:08, for today's race, was slow, but this can be partly accounted for by lack of pace being made during the first half of the journey.

RESOLUTE WINS BY BIG MARGIN

Rye, N. Y., June 23.—All three of the cup defense aspirants, the Resolute, Vanitie and Defiance, met today for the first time in a completed race and finished in the order named with the flag officers' yacht a winner by many minutes. It was her sixth and longest victory over the Vanitie which seemed slower than usual.

While the Defiance which had a chance for the first time to show her worth proved a disappointment. At one time the tricity yacht was more than four miles astern of the Resolute, which set the pace almost from the start. On the last leg the Defiance brought in a new and freshening breeze and finished 23 minutes and 13 seconds behind the Resolute, and 8 minutes and 48 seconds after the Vanitie. The Resolute won the race by 16 minutes and 20 seconds, in corrected time over the Vanitie, and by 20 minutes and 12 seconds over the Defiance.
